PREFACE.

This catalogue is divided into two parts:

The first part corresponds to the ordinary author index to be found in practically all catalogues of law books, but it includes more, and is intended to be the one place where primarily will be found a reference to every book in the library, including not only text-books, publications of the United States Government and the like, but also reports of judicial decisions, etc. The reports of decisions, statutes, digests and session-laws of each State will be found under the name of the corresponding State and are entered also in the regular alphabetical arrangement under the name of the Author, Reporter or Editor.

Treatises, Reports, etc., of foreign countries are listed under the names of the Countries whence they emanate, and are also entered in the regular alphabetical arrangement under the name of the Author, Editor or Reporter.

The indexing of Authors, Editors or Reporters, of the different States of the United States and foreign Countries is not elaborately arranged as to number of volumes and period covered, but in the majority of instances, only the name is given, with a reference to the particular State or Country to which it belongs.

The second part is an index of Text-Books, arranged alphabetically, according to subject, giving in full, number of volumes, date, etc. The Text-Books, as already stated, are also entered, in full, in the regular alphabetical arrangement under the name of the Author, Editor or Reporter.

The catalogue shows how the Reports of each State are taken care of by the (West) National Reporter System. In other words, it is intended to bring the State Reports up to the (West) National Reporter System. In some instances, the Library has Reports of certain States after the National Reporter System started.

With very few exceptions, the Library contains all the State Reports published prior to the beginning of the National Reporter System. This, of course, is all shown in the Catalogue.

I desire to state that in the compilation of this Catalogue, the Catalogue of the Department of Justice, Washington, 1904, was used as a guide, but I am fully aware that this one falls short of being its equal, not only in point of size but as to its compilation. I have earnestly endeavored to give the members of the Association a catalogue, compiled in such manner that one can ascertain with the minimum of trouble and effort whether the book wanted is in our Library, and also what our Library contains on the subject. I trust I have succeeded.

It cannot be hoped, in a work of this character, that there are no errors. The manuscript was prepared largely at odd intervals and subject to interruptions. The most that can be hoped is that the errors are few in number and that they do not materially impair the usefulness of the book.

Charles Rosen, Esq., of the New Orleans Bar, constituted the Committee on Library for 1910-1911. It was at his suggestion that these labors were undertaken and special acknowledgement is due to him for his encouragement and assistance.

RULES OF THE LIBRARY,

1. The Library shall be open every legal day from 9 o'clock A. M., to 5 o'clock P. M., including Saturdays, when Courts are in session.

During vacation, or when Courts are closed, from 9 o'clock A. M., to 3:30 o'clock P. M., except Saturdays when it will close at noon.

2. The Librarian is to be in attendance during these hours, and shall see that the Library is properly kept and the comfort of the members cared for.

3. Only members are permitted to use the books or Library.

4. Judges or lawyers from other States may be permitted the use of Library upon the recommendation of a member.

5. Books may be taken out of the Library for use in any of the Courts holding sessions in the Court house; or, for use before the Board of Pardons, to the office of the Attorney General while it is located in said building.

6. If books are not withdrawn by the member personally, they will be delivered only on written order signed by the member, containing the statement that the books are for the borrower's use. A printed form is provided for that purpose.

7. The Judges of the Courts holding sessions in the Court house may withdraw such books for perusal in the Court house building as they desire to use; which should be returned as soon as convenient.

8. The Librarian shall collect and return to the Library all books withdrawn by attorneys. This should be done before the closing hours of the day on which they are withdrawn.

9. Except as provided for herein, no books may be withdrawn from the Library.

10. The Librarian shall see that all books taken during the day are returned and placed by him in proper place before the Library is closed in the afternoon of the same day.

Books may be taken from shelves by the members; the Librarian will replace them.

11. The Librarian shall keep a record of all books withdrawn.

12. Members will be held responsible for all books withdrawn by them. The Librarian is requested to report promptly any default.

13. A non-member accompanied by a member who desires his presence in the investigation of a matter in which they are interested may use the Library jointly with such member, upon stating these facts to the Librarian.

14. A member's clerk may use the books for his employer who shall be required to give written authority.

15. Memoranda shall be kept of all books called for, not in the Library, and same reported to Library Committee.

16. Librarian must make no purchases, but report from time to time all supplies needed, such as paper, pens, pencils, etc., to Secretary.

17. Members on applying to the Librarian, will, on payment of 35c, be furnished with a pass-key with which they can obtain access to the Library, day or night. This key is only rented, and must be returned at once, if user ceases to be a member. A member using Library at night, legal holiday, Sunday or at any time when Librarian is not in charge, should see that all lights and fans are properly turned off, and windows and door properly locked.

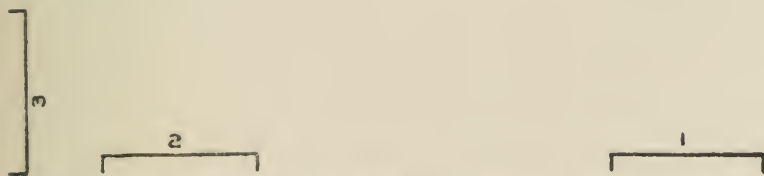

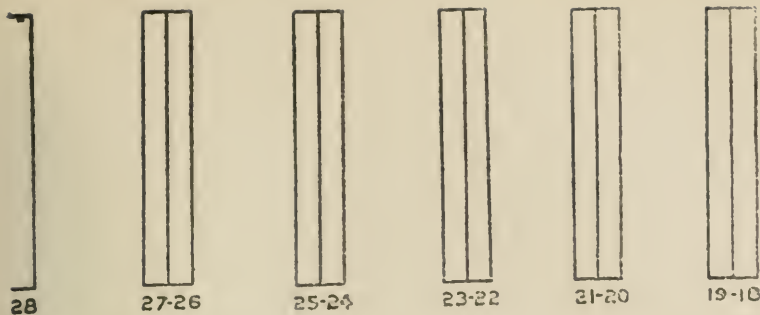

18. Loud talking, and, generally, conduct which disturbs the quiet of the Library, are prohibited.

EXPLANATION.

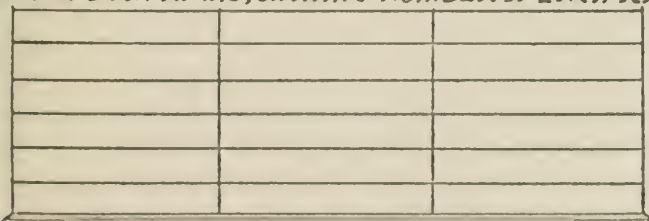

The small "x" denotes that the work is a continuing publication.

The figures shown after each Report, Text-Book, etc., indicate the location. For instance, "American Bankruptcy Reports" is shown as (4-A-1-2) which means Case 4, Section A, Shelves 1 and 2.

"Mc's" will be found under "Mac's."

(Note taken from catalogue, Library, Department of Justice, Washington:

"The numbering of N. C. Reports as here given was adopted by rule of the Supreme Court of that State at its February term, 1891.

"The early reports from Martin to Term Reports, inclusive, were reprinted by Battle, not in the order above indicated, but as follows:

"Martin and Haywood, Vol. 2, in one volume; reprinted in 1843.

"Taylor and Conference (Cameron and Norwood), in one volume; reprinted in 1844.

"Haywood, Vol. 1; reprinted in 1832.

"Law Repository and Term Reports, in one volume; reprinted in 1844.

"It is manifestly impossible to arrange these books in the order authorized by the court except by segregating the volume which contains Martin and Haywood, Vol. 2, and placing Martin as a part of Vol. 1, and Haywood, Vol. 2, as Vol. 3, N. C. Reports. This difficulty has been met by a reprint of Battle's edition of Martin, Taylor and Conference Reports in one volume. In this reprint even the title pages are reproduced, which to some extent is misleading. However, the book constitutes Vol. 1, N. C. Reports, as authorized by the Supreme Court of that State.")

CUMULATIVE SUPPLEMENT

CATALOGUE OF THE LIBRARY

LOUISIANA BAR ASSOCIATION

—to—

MARCH, 1928.

FOREWORD

A general Catalogue of the Library of the Association was published in 1911, since which time only one Supplement has been issued. Inasmuch as there have been a great many accessions to the Library within the last several years, it has seemed desirable to issue now this Cumulative Supplement which, with the Catalogue of 1911, will furnish a complete index to the books in the Library.

For the sake of brevity, no reference is made in this Supplement to the continuation of such current reports as are shown in the original Catalogue.

In every instance the date of the publication is shown, and where there has been more than one edition, the number of the latest edition in the Library is also indicated. In many instances all or some of the earlier editions of the text are to be found in the Library, although not mentioned in this Supplement.

This Supplement, prepared by me at the suggestion and with the assistance and cooperation of Mr. Eldon S. Lazarus, of the Library Committee, is presented with the hope that it will make more accessible to the members of the Association the many recent additions to the Library, particularly in the Text Book Department.
